The Adams and Tupper interest in the American Oil Works, at Miller Farm, will be sold on Tuesday, the 21st inst., at 12 o'clock m., at sheriff's sale.

A new well was struck on the James Rooker Farm, Pitohole, on Saturday last. It is the property of Capt. John Wolfe, and is doing twenty barrels.

Just seven years ago last Friday, on the 17th of September, 1862, the great Federal victory of Antietam was achieved upon the soil of "Maryland, my Maryland."

Mrs. Lucy Stone, Mrs. Livermore and Miss Anthony held a reception at the Burnett House, Cincinnati, Friday morning, which was attended by many citizens.

PETROLEUM BRANCH RAILROAD.—This road was again partially torn up by the recent flood, and the running of trains has been obstructed until to-day, when they commenced to run regularly again.

DEMOCRATIC TOWNSHIP MEETING.—The Democrats of Cornplanter township meet in convention on Wednesday next, at Sobel's Opera House, to nominate township officers.

DOING WELL.—We are pleased to learn that the Arnold & Phinney well, on the Mallory Farm, struck last week, is still pumping forty barrels.

A card was hung out of a little oyster shop in Sandusky City, Ohio, while the State Sabbath School Convention was in session in that place, which read: "Oysters in every still, cooked to order. Friends of the redeemer please call."

The Jamestown and Franklin railroad is now reorganized as the Franklin Division of the Lake Shore railroad, a consolidation having been recently effected. George H. McIntire, Esq., one of the most efficient and thoroughly skilled railroad men of the country, retains his position under the new order of things as Superintendent.

Mr. John Bleakley, father of Col. James Bleakley, President of the International Bank of Franklin, died at his residence in Jackson township, Venango county, on Friday, the 10th inst., aged 81 years. He was born in Ireland, and emigrated to this country in 1813. He was a devoted member of the Presbyterian denomination, and passed through a long life of usefulness with an unblemished record. He was buried with Masonic honors, his funeral being one of the largest that ever took place in Venango county.

KELLY AND LEON'S MISERABLE.—This famous troupe exhibits at Sobel's New Opera House on Monday and Tuesday evenings, September 27th and 28th. Concerning one of their recent performances in Albany, the Argus says:

"This troupe gave one of their pleasing performances at Tweedie Hall last evening. They are without doubt the best minstrel troupe at present in this country. They constitute the 'Associated Artists,' being the creme de la creme of Kelly & Leon's company. In their music, vocal and instrumental, their new, fresh comicalities, their chaste jokes and conversation, or their imitable second part, they are without an equal. If they return to our city shortly, they will not only receive a hearty welcome, but will be honored with crowded houses, should they remain a month.

"We commend them to our Eastern friends, whither we understand they are bound, as the champion troupe of the age. Sarridge and Bernardo's sweet ballads, or Talbot's comicalities, will not soon be forgotten by the immense audience who were present. There were few dry eyes in the house during the rendering by Bernardo of the sweet ballad 'Write me a Letter from Home.'"

We hear of the organization of a new society with the expressive name of the "Pay Nothings." It is said to be alarmingly prosperous. The password is, "Lend me a Dollar;" the response is, "Broke." A good many newspaper subscribers are members of the society.

THE RACE.—The race between "Slim Jim" and the Cherrytree mare, on the Petroleum Centre track, on Saturday last, for $50 a side, was won by the former. Another race has been arranged between the same horses, to take place on Friday next, on the Titusville track, best two in three, for $100 a side.

NEW DRUG STORE AT ROUSEVILLE.—Our friends in the vicinity of Rouseville will be pleased to know that a new and large drug store has been recently opened in that place by W. R. McCormick and Co., formerly of Shamburg. They have fitted up commodious apartments in a pleasant location, and have put in a fresh stock of drugs, toilet articles, notions, etc., and, no doubt, will be liberally patronized. W. R. McCormick is well and favorably known as a druggist in the oil region, and has hosts of friends wherever he goes. A new and elegant soda fountain has been set up in this establishment, from which can be obtained the delicious beverage ice cold.

A SINGULAR AFFAIR.—Some twelve months ago a wealthy young lady died at Agen, France, and was buried in a part of the cemetery known for its preservative qualities. The mother of the young lady, inconsolable for the loss of a beloved daughter, lately followed her to the grave, and left the dying request that she should be buried in the same coffin with her child. Preparations were accordingly made to carry into effect her last wishes. On opening the coffin of the young lady, the shroud was found in disorder, a crucifix in her hand clenched tightly, the same band bitten in several places, and the lower lip cut through with the teeth. Nor was this all. With the crucifix the wretched girl had traced several words on the coffin lid.

The name of the "Crete lady" who travels with Yankee Robinson's circus, is Senyah when spelled backwards, as it always is on the bills, but when it isn't it is Haynes. She has never been married, but almost as great a misfortune befell her at Clyde, N. Y., the other day, when somebody robbed her of $2,000 in money and twice that amount in diamonds, etc. She belongs not to Crete, but to Boston. So says an exchange.

Lammers & Alden have a new stock of all late styles of Hats and Caps.

A Chicago paper concludes an account of a marriage in that city with the declaration that the parties were united for life. If they were, it was certainly the first of the kind that ever occurred there.

A man in Wayne county, Indiana, who has lost five wives, has been admonished that he must not marry any more until the new cemetery is fenced and ready for business.

The call, after stating that the Governors of all the States are invited to attend the Convention, says that in case the Governors of any of the States refuse to appoint delegates to the Convention, that delegates appointed by Congressmen of any Congressional District will be received and duly accredited, and admitted to seats in the Convention.

A RARE CHANCE.—Mr. Barker, having engaged the services of Mr. E. Howard, whose reputation as a colorist ranks with the first artists of the country, is prepared to furnish photographs beautifully colored or finished in India ink. Those desiring such work, either from life or copied from small pictures, should embrace the opportunity at once, and call at Barker's photographic gallery, on Washington street, Petroleum Centre. aug25-1m
